This is a working document and is intended to provide guidance only. Changes and alterations may be necessary.

'Teacher's choice' has been included to allow teachers the freedom and creativity to innovate and choose appropriate ways in which to apply the curriculum to their children. This may include alternative sports or an area of particular interest to them.

Areas of coverage in red are taught by our specialist sports coaches.

An element of choice has been included so that teachers can either change their provision, or alternate year by year. Where possible, classes have been given the same area to teach in the hope that classes may collaborate with their learning.
